THE MARKETS.—No change in our home Markets. The Baltimore Cattle Market, of the 23d inst., quotes: Cattle from $4 to $8 50 per 100.
Sheep from $5 to $8 per 100.
Hogs, $10 to $10 75 per 100.

The only sure way to keep our Beer Ordinance in force and effect, is to vote the Prohibition ticket!

Hos. F. W. Wood declines being one of the candidates for Trustees of the Burial Grounds, as nominated by the Republican Convention.

The Prohibition Meeting at the Town Hall, on last Friday evening, addressed by Rev. C. W. Courtwright, was a decided success.

Divine service will be held in the St.
Patrick and James Catholic Church, of this place, on next Sabbath, April 2d, at ten and half o'clock, A. M.

If you do not want your boys made drunkards, vote the Prohibition ticket this Spring, and thereby make certain that the Beer Ordinance will not be repealed.

If you do not want your slumbers disturbed by hideous revelry and debauch, vote the Prohibition ticket, and thereby defeat the project to repeal the Beer Ordinance.

Who can tell the number of murders, fights, street brawls, &c., that might result in one year from the repeal of the Beer Ordinance of McConnellsville?
Vote the Prohibition ticket, and thereby make it sure that the Ordinance will not be repealed.

Who can estimate the amount of taxes the people of this Townsip will have to pay as the legitimate result of the repeal of the Beer Ordinance?
Vote the Prohibition ticket!

W. H. ALLARD, while engaged in roffing Dr. J. H. Brown's office, on last Saturday evening, fell from the roof to the ground, severely bruising his right shoulder and arm.

Some boys, while playing in a canoe on the river somewhere near the wharfbow, on last Saturday afternoon, came near drowning, and were rescued by some bystanders.

NEXT Monday is the day of the Spring Elections. Don't fail to make your appearance at the polls, and also remember to vote the Prohibition ticket.

Rev. C. W. COURTWRIGHT will preach at the Presbyterian Church, of this place, next Sabbath, morning and evening.
Rev. H. Cooper will be absent in attendance on the Athens Synod, which meets the first of next week at Middle-port.

Dr. W. B. HAZEN left this place on Wednesday morning for Ameyville, Athens county, where he will locate and follow his profession. The Doctor leaves many friends here and also what was growing into a good practice.
May success attend him in his new location!

Who can tell the number of the followers of Christ that will be induced into sin, who can tell the obstacles that will be put in the way of many becoming Christians by the repeal of the Beer Ordinance? Vote the Prohibition ticket!

It is stated that Gaylord & Co., have a Townsip and Corporation Ticket all "cut and dried" to be presented to the voters next Monday. No one can get any clue as to who the candidates are.

THE Bristol Townsip Prohibition Ticket is headed by Thomas Weeden, Jacob Wortman and Rufus D. Cotton for Trustees, with Richard Adams for Clerk and William H. Cool for Treasurer. We do not know who will be on the ticket for Assessor and Constable.

M. McDANIEL, of the firm of Barker & McDaniel, has just returned from the East with an abundant stock of New Goods, amongst which we notice that Notions have almost been made a specialty. For something new, nice, and at the lowest possible price, remember to call on Barker & McDaniel.

THE case of O. Berckholder vs. the Village of McConnellsville, carried from this County to the Supreme Court of Ohio, has been decided sustaining the Beer Ordinance.
The last resort of the Beer Ordinance is to defeat the Prohibition Ticket this Spring, and thereby secure the repeal of the Ordinance.
Rally to the support of the Prohibition Ticket!

STRANGE BUT TRUE!—H. R. Pinkerton, Esq., of this town, informs us that he gave one paper of the Farmer's Conditioner to a cow that he thought was about to go dry, and the result is more than double the quantity of milk and richer than before. Be particular to buy only the Ohio Farmer's, and you will be more than repaid for the investment.

Who can form an idea of the number of children that will be clothed in rags, the number of wives and daughters and mothers that will be made to mourn, the number of dependents that will be made to go hungry, the cries of anguish and wretchedness that will result from the repeal of the Beer Ordinance. Vote the Prohibition ticket!

AS yet a fine specimen of the American Aloe, or "Century Plant," as we have ever seen for its age, is the one at Dr. Charles Robertson's Drug Store. It is now about eleven years old, and the Doctor says that if his friends will call on him eighty-nine years from this date, they can see it in bloom.

A VOTE was taken, on last Sabbath, by the members of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, on the question as to whether or not Rev. H. Cooper's resignation as pastor of that Church should be accepted. The expression of the members being unanimous in favor of his remaining their pastor, he withdrew his resignation.

CHARLES E. KAHLER is about to retire from the Herald. He takes with him the entire Job Department of the office, and will convert it into a separate printing establishment, devoted entirely to Job Printing. The new office will be in the room heretofore occupied by Kahler as a Music Store. Andrew Kahler, with James M. Husk as assistant editor, will conduct the Herald.

DR. CHARLES ROBERTSON has been a practising physician in this village for forty-five years, commencing in 1826.
Since 1857, however, when he commenced business as a Druggist, he has declined riding unless in cases of special importance. His Drug Store, on the Northwest corner of the Public Square, evidences the disposition of the proprietor and his clerks to do their share of business this Spring.

MORGAN COUNTY ought to have good bridges. During the four quarters just ended, our Commissioners have spent $7,285.07 for bridge purposes, and notwithstanding the fact, when the coming June tax is collected, there will be a bridge fund in the Treasury of $11,109.60 they have ordered that a levy that will amount to $4,600 more shall be collected for the people for the following year.

JOHN H. MERRITT, for some years back Assistant Cashier of the First National Bank of McConnellsville, goes to Indianapolis to embark in the lumber business. We were sorry to lose him for many reasons, one of which is because he is an uncompromising Prohibitionist. His place as a candidate for Treasurer on our Townsip Ticket, is filled by Thomas Hammond. It is uncertain, as yet, who will take Murry's place in the Bank.

MALTA Townsip Prohibitionists have put the following ticket in the field for Townsip and Corporation officers to be voted for next Monday: Townsip Ticket—For Trustees, Thos.
Williams, A. W. Walker, Wm. Smith; for Assessor, Joseph Deeweese; for Clerk, William A. Brown; for Treasurer, John G. Walker; for Justice of the Peace, Isaac Stubbs; for Constables, Enos Garman and C. Holcomb.

Corporation Ticket—For Councilmen, William Cuggy, Isaac Stubbs, James Timms, and Joshua Jones.

Rev. L. McGEE, Presiding Elder of the McConnellsville District of the Presbyterian Church, will address the congregation in the Pittsburgh Christian Adocate, of March 25th, the first of a series of lectures for said District for 1871, as follows:
Duncan, Feb. 1st; Sonora, 8th; Mt. Zion, 15th; McConnellsville and Morgan, 22d; Beverly, 29th; Rich-hill, May 6th; Bethel, 13th; Seneca-ville, 20th; Summerville, 27th; Stafford, June 3d; Lebanon, 10th; Salem, 17th; Newport and Cow Run, 24th; Brownsville, July 1st; Sharon, 8th; Unionville, 15th.

SPLENDID GAMES and BUREAU

Shades, at ADAMS'S Book Store.

The stock is large and can't be beat for quality and price.

Turns is just opened a fine assortment of Dry Goods, consisting in part of Prints, De-laines, Jeans, Muslins, Tickings, Drilling, Gottensons, Checks, Ginghams, Fanneles, Crash and a general line of goods suited to the times and the season, all of which is offered as low as the very lowest at SILL'S.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!
A general assortment of New Goods just opened at Kelly & Sea-man's.

RAIL ROAD MATTERS.—The subscription books for the South-Eastern Ohio Rail Road have been printed, are now being bound, and will soon be in circulation.
James A. McConnell and C. L.
Hall met Gen. Thomas Ewing and Col. Taylor, by previous arrangement, in Perry County, the second part of this week, and had a conference relative to the feasibility of the contemplated route, and all were satisfied that a little public spirit aroused along the line would guarantee the road. Perry County is willing to render a portion of the necessary assistance to the enterprise, will build that portion of the road running through her territory whenever it is determined that Morgan and the other counties east will come down liberally with subscriptions for the remainder of the route.

ALMOST A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last week, C. L. Barker, of the firm of Barker & McDaniel, of this place, was considerably disabled at De-vols Dam. Somebody was closing the water gates by means of a capstan and lever, and the water coming against the gates with such force as to make the capstan revolve quite rapidly without human aid, Barker, not noticing, got in the way of the lever, and received quite a severe blow just above the knee, bruising him considerably, but not breaking the bone. But "business is business" with Barker, and withstanding the above, we see him at his post superintending matters at the Store, keeping himself informed on the market prices of hams, shoulders, sides and lard, and also all kinds of country produce; and we'll venture to say he'll be the first to call on our farmer friends this Spring enquiring as to the extent of their wool crop. There is nothing like industry and energy in business, and knee or no knee, they are component parts of Barker.

RATHER a small number of our fellow-citizens attended the Republican Tp. Convention, held in the Mayor's office on last Saturday evening. All told they would number about twenty, the highest number of votes cast, at any time while we were there being sixteen, seven or eight of the voters being candidates. Charles B. Sweetland was chosen chairman of the august body, and R. H. Brent secretary.

Judge D. C. Pinkerton was there as a matter of course, and he, assisted by Dan. Marion, seemed to be the chief clerk of the affair. Amongst them, they succeeded in nominating the following ticket: Townsip Ticket—For Trustees,
James C. Longbridge, Joshua Hall, and David Holbrook; for Clerk, F.
M. Kahler; for Assessor, Robert H. Brent; for Constables, Abner Pyle and Cornelius Head.

Corporation Ticket—For Trustees, H. M. Cochran, Worley Adams and Henry Patterson; for Clerk, Lewis Harter; for Trustees of the Burial Grounds, 1 year, C. B. Sweetland; 2 years, R. H. Brent; 3 years, F. W.
Wood.

Tax case of Ohio vs. Stephen Miller, so far, has cost the tax-payers
as follows:—

Fees of Special Grand Jury,	$30 00
Fees of Drs. Brown, Ewing, and Hledge, for the post mortem examination of body of Tracy, twenty dol- lars each,	60 00
Fees of Petit Jury,	63 00
Fees of Sheriff, including board of Miller,	83 00
Fees of Clerk of the Court, Fees of Deputy Sheriffs dur- ing trial,	4 00
Fees of F. B. Pond as As- sistant Prosecuting At- torney,	25 00
Fees of Hall and Stanbery, and allowance for expen- ses incurred by them in defending Miller,	125 00
Board of Jury, two days, during the trial,	48 00
Fees of witnesses before the inquest, before the Grand Jury, and before the Court of Common Pleas, fees of Coroner's Jury, money expended in horse-hire and in employing persons to search for Miller,	126 10
Total,	$581 10

Five hundred and eighty-one dollars and ten cents is rather a large bill for our tax-payers to pay in one case growing out of the Liquor Traffic, ain't it? But this is not all, tax-payers! In addition to the above sum, there is the claim of the reward of three hundred dollars, offered by the County Commissioners for the arrest of Miller, yet to settle, which, if paid, will swell the sum to eight hundred and eighty-one dollars and ten cents! And, besides this, there is a prospect of Miller getting a new trial, which, if he succeeds in getting, will cost the taxpayers not less than four hundred dollars more!

What do you think of it, tax-payers? Is it to your interest to continue voting with the old political parties which are upholding the Liquor Traffic and thereby swelling your taxes beyond endurance, or is it your interest to cast your ballots with the Prohibition Party that is pledged to drive the Liquor Traffic from the Land?

The expenses of this case may be compared with what you have to pay annually for the devastations wrought by the Liquor Traffic, only as a grain of sand to the mountain or as a drop of water to the ocean.
Could we but get at the actual cost of the Traffic in Morgan county alone, for one year, it would appall every man in the County.

When you go the polls to vote, think of this matter, and ask yourself if self-interest does not demand that you should vote the Prohibition Ticket.

On Wednesday, we called on Lukens & Strong, Wagon Manufacturers and Blacksmiths, at the old Lukens & Douds stand, opposite the wharfbow, and ascertained that they have some very superior Farm and Express Wagons on hand of their own manufacture, and, judging them as specimens of their work, we cannot but say we have never seen them excelled anywhere.— On inquiry we find that they are manufacturing Farm Wagons, Two-Spring, Four-Spring, and Platform Spring Express Wagons, that they are doing any and all kinds of blacksmithing, and also that they are engaged largely in repairing and re-painting Wagons and Carriages, and they are soliciting orders for new work, never forgetting anything but Dry Timber.— Mr. Lukens has been in the business here for twenty-four years, and Mr.
Strong has worked at the business in this County for upward of twenty years.

dence of Joseph Wright, in Center Tp., Morgan county, Ohio, Mr. Francis A.
Lusk and Miss Arilla A. O. Wickerman, both of Morgan County.

By the same, on the 7th of March, 1871, at the house of the bride's parents, in Meigsville township, Morgan county, Ohio, Mr. James B. Smith and Miss Catherine H. Hitchens, both of Morgan County.

On March 26th, 1871, at the residence of the bride's mother, in Malta township, by Rev. H. Cooper, Mr. Hiram B. Rice and Miss Rachel N. Newman, all of Morgan county.

On the 30th of March, 1871, at the residence of the bride's parents, in Malta

OBITUARY.

DEAD.—At the residence of her mother in Bloom Township, Morgan county, Ohio, Miss Nancy J., daughter of William and Phoebe Briggs, in the 20th year of her age.

The deceased was born August 10th, 1846, and died March 9th, 1871. She was converted and baptized into the fellowship of the Rockville Baptist Church, of which she continued a member until her death. The generousness of the Spirit's work on her heart was signally manifested during her Christian life. She had the respect and affection of all within the circle of her acquaintance. Gentleness of spirit and Christian reserve characterized her life. The smile that lit up her countenance as the Spirit brought her to her death, she bore with Christian fortitude and resignation, believing "God doeth all things well." Towards the close of her illness she was anxious to depart, and prayed God to take her to himself. She called her friends around her, as she was dying, told them she was "passing away," asked all to kiss her, and then fell asleep.

"Sleep in Jesus! O how sweet!
To be for such a slumber meet,
With Holy comfort to sing That Death hath lost his venomous sting."

She leaves a mother, two sisters and a brother, to mourn her loss. May they die the death of the righteous, and their end be like hers.

March 27, 1871.

On the 21st instant, HELEN MAX, youngest daughter of Arthur and Adeline C. Hooser, of Keokuk, Iowa, in the 21st year of her age. (State City, of Keokuk, Iowa.)
